MIXED VOICES

CLARA ENDICOTT SEARS

JOHN HOPKINS DENSMORE

March time, very marked throughout the entire song

PIANO

The piano accompaniment for the first system is written for a grand piano. The right hand features a melody with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a steady bass line with eighth notes. The key signature is B-flat major (two flats), and the time signature is 6/8. The music is marked with a forte 'f' dynamic.

CHORUS

Soprano and Alto

The vocal melody for the Soprano and Alto parts is written on a single staff. It begins with a forte 'f' dynamic and consists of a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, some with ties. The lyrics are written below the staff.

1. There's a streak — a - cross the sky - line — That is
 2. Can you see — the flash - ing em - blem — Of our
 3. Glo - rious flag — we raise so proud - ly — Stars and
 4. When the cry — of bat - tling na - tions — Reach-es

Tenor and Bass

This block contains the piano accompaniment for the second system and the vocal melody for the Tenor and Bass parts. The piano part continues with the same 6/8 time signature and forte 'f' dynamic. The vocal melody for the Tenor and Bass parts is written on a single staff, mirroring the structure of the Soprano and Alto parts with the same lyrics.

THE UNFURLING OF THE FLAG

There's a streak across the sky line
That is gleaming in the sun,
Watchers from the light-house towers
Signalled it to foreign Powers
Just as daylight had begun,
Message thrilling,
Hopes fulfilling
To those fighting o'er the seas.
"It's the flag we've named Old Glory
That's unfurling to the breeze."

Can you see the flashing emblem
Of our Country's high ideal?
Keep your lifted eyes upon it
And draw joy and courage from it,
For it stands for what is real,
Freedom's calling
To the falling
From oppression's hard decrees.
It's the flag we've named Old Glory
You see floating in the breeze.

Glorious flag we raise so proudly,
Stars and stripes, red, white and blue,
You have been the inspiration
Of an ever-growing nation
Such as this world never knew.
Peace and Justice,
Freedom, Progress,
Are the blessings we can seize
When the flag we call Old Glory
Is unfurling to the breeze.

When the cry of battling nations
Reaches us across the space
Of the wild tumultuous ocean,
Hearts are stirred with deep emotion
For the saving of the race!
Peace foregoing,
Aid bestowing,
Bugles blowing,
First we drop on bended knees,
Then with shouts our grand Old Glory
We set flaunting to the breeze!
